

MISSION STATEMENT:

Dynasty Racing League was formed to promote fun, exciting, and fair organized simulated racing, while holding members and officials to the highest standard.

For the 2025 Cup Series, the Dynasty Racing League will be utilizing the iRacing Gen4 Cup Car. The season will be modeled after the 2003 NASCAR Winston Cup Season with 4 additional tracks. The schedule and point system are shown at the end of this document.

It is the responsibility of all drivers participating in the Dynasty Racing League Cup Series to know all the information provided in this document. No exceptions!!

SERIES OVERVIEW:

The 2025 Dynasty Racing League's season shall consist of 40 races. This season will consist of 2 elements. There will be a 40 race overall season and within that 40 race season there shall be quarterly seasons as well.

2025	2025 SEASON SPLIT	RACE NUMBERS
40 RACE	A QUARTERLY	1-10
OVERALL	B QUARTERLY	11-20
SEASON	C QUARTERLY	21-30
CHAMPION	D QUARTERLY	31-40

This series has been created to present racing in its purest form. 80% fuel runs and tire set limits. Not only will you have to manage these two you also have to manage the condition of your car throughout the whole race. A lot of your race strategy depends on all these conditions. If any one of these affects your performance regroup and don't push it or you may run into further trouble. In other words, drive within your ability and conditions. Things may change later in the race.

SERIES RULES:

Rules are subject to the admins discretion and may be amended at any point in time if the situation arises.

Microphones are mandatory within the iRacing software platform for race communication.

Starts and restarts will occur in the restart zone as displayed by the iRacing Software.

Single file restarts will occur with the lap down cars lined up in the inside lane.

Changing lanes before the start/finish line shall occur to the right only. Changing lanes before the start/finish line to the left will result in a drive thru penalty.

During green flag pit stops it would be advisable to call pitting on stretch prior to pit entrance. Failure to do so may cause a caution or accident.

When entering the pits stay to the right, you may pass through 2 pit stalls entering and exiting your stall.

When exiting pit road, you must stay below the yellow line and merge properly on the backstretch, violations will result in an iRacing black flag and will NOT be cleared.

Any driver found at fault with causing a caution shall be issued an EOL penalty.

When cautions are displayed safely reduce speed and catch up to the pace car. The leader should announce to the field the position of the pace car. Please no race chatter until the field has caught up to the pace car. This is to ensure the admins directions are heard by all participants.

No arguments during racing, take it up with the driver or an admin post-race.

There will be no private messaging admins using profanity or questioning calls, calls will be verified by multiple admins.

NO profanity filled rants; any driver will be removed from the race for this. Repeat offenses may include suspension or removal.

If the need arises where you need to contact a series admin you may do so immediately after the race in Discord or you may contact an Admin afterwards in iRacing messages and your concern will be addressed as soon as administratively possible.

----------------------------	------------------------------------	--------------------------

PROVISIONAL POINTS:

Here at Dynasty Racing League, we understand that real life commitments whether it be family, work or other obligations may conflict with a race night. If a driver misses a race, he shall be awarded last place provisional points. This means that if 24 drivers are present in a certain race, all other drivers missing that race would receive points for 25th place. The provisional points received all depend on the number of drivers present for that night. For each quarter season each driver shall be awarded 1 provisional start. After the provisional start is awarded for that quarter, a driver will not receive any further provisional points for the remainder of the split season. In addition, any new driver added to the series during the course of the season shall receive provisional points starting with the first race of that split season.

SERIES SCHEDULE:

FINAL THOUGHTS:

We are here to have fun. Race others with respect. Race others as you wish to be raced and we shall have a fantastic season. If you race here it is because you were invited and we value your racing skills. We consider every driver to be a perfect gentleman and that is the behavior we seek. Remember every driver no matter where he may be running on the track deserves to be on track and raced respectfully.
